Participantes, informações e Diário de aprendizagem

This course is designed to offer a deeper understanding of class dynamics, students' wellbeing, learning success, and family involvement in inclusive schools. "We are all special" reflects the attitude that educators may use in inclusive classes, in order to prevent labeling, isolation, bullying towards special needs or diverse students in general, and that will be the core concept of main activities during the course, where diversity is synonym of understanding, integration and opportunity.

Participants will be given a general introduction to main disabilities such as learning disabilities (dyslexia, dyspraxia),
